

Biologists are sought for vegetation inventory, mapping and analyses for the Craters of the Moon National Park project in Idaho. Hourly wages paid and FREE HOUSING at the park. Fieldwork will be from May-July. BS in botany, biology, or related field. Experience in conducting vegetation surveys in sagebrush steppe required. Good plant identification skills and GPS skills. Send resume and 3 references with phone numbers to miket@emi-nm.com by April 16.