

SRM 60th ANNUAL MEETING MANAGED RANGELANDS: Traditions & Transitions

Dear Friend,

The Nevada Section of Society for Range Management (SRM) is pleased to host the 60th Anniversary meeting for the organization next February 9-16, 2007 at John Ascuaga's Nugget in Sparks, Nevada.

Members of SRM come from 38 countries around the world and are scientists, educators, ranchers, rangeland managers, students, and conservationists; all concerned with proper use and sustainability of our rangeland resources. We have chosen "Managed Rangelands, Traditions and Transitions" for our 2007 theme. In Nevada, 95% of the state is covered by various types of rangelands. Our water, our wildlife, our ranching and mining industries, and our recreation all depend on our rangelands.

In Reno we will offer a wide range of interesting and world-class symposia, workshops, technical sessions and tours. Examples include: ethnobotany, ecology and management of wild equines, livestock grazing for wildlife, ecology and management of aspen, fire ecology, Mojave Desert management, a Basque history dinner and much more. We anticipate up to 2500 attendees at the conference.

We will host members from all over North America and around the world. We offer you the opportunity to share in our meeting by sponsoring refreshment breaks in the Trade Show area, tours, student activities, technical symposia, or other events throughout the meeting. We have six levels of sponsorship available, Copper, Bronze, Silver, Gold, Platinum, and Diamond; we will recognize your business or organization both before and during the conference. Exhibit space at the concurrent Trade Show or advertising in conference publications is available as well. Please see our website for further information. We invite you to attend the conference!

Thank you very much. General information is available at www.rangelands.org. Please call Maggie Orr, Nevada Sponsorships Chair, at 775/ 753-5516 if you have questions. We look forward to highlighting your name as a supporter of rangelands.

Sincerely,

Jim Linebaugh and Barry Perryman
